

SYNOPSIS

A funny and eye-opening look into a hard-fought mayoral race between a legally blind, blunt-speaking, conservative Republican incumbent, a retired Democrat brought back into the fray and a legally blind write-in candidate, in the small town of Bogota, New Jersey. With its quirky characters, dilapidated infrastructure, and impassioned citizens, Bogota serves as the perfect backdrop for a behind-the-scenes look at our nation's political heart.

REVIEWS

"A campaign for mayor that takes unexpected, and heartbreaking twists and turns."

Josh Benson,

The New York Times

★★★½

"...the impact of a blockbuster drama... keeps you guessing right up until the end."

Joyce J. Persico,

The Times

★★★½

"...more twists than an episode of "Lost"... It's a nail biting drama."

Lisa Rose,

The Star-Ledger

★★★½

"Big race in small town captures the imagination."

Marta Barber,

The Miami Herald

 (all stars out of 4)

FACTS AND FIGURES

- Directed by Kristian Fraga and Produced by Sirk Productions
- Distributed in North America by Film Movement
- 2006 theatrical engagements in 12 cities nationwide
 - Over 200 screenings to date
 - Now available on DVD (Netflix, Amazon, etc.)
- Available online at Danny Devito's "Jersey Docs" through Clickstar.com
 - Aired in the United Kingdom on Channel 5
 - Aired in Canada on The Documentary Channel
- From Executive Producer Tom Fontana (OZ, Homicide, St. Elsewhere)

FILM FESTIVALS

Atlanta Film Festival
Woodstock Film Festival
Minneapolis-St. Paul Film Festival
True/Falso Film Festival
Long Island Film Festival
Trenton Film Festival

Eureka Film Festival
Staten Island Film Festival
New Jersey Filmmakers of Tomorrow
Newport Beach Film Festival
Utah Freedom Festival

CONTACT

John L. Sikes, Producer
Sirk Productions

Phone: 212-244-4934 Fax: 212-244-5429
sikes@sirkproductions.com